

The SHAPE model

The SHAPE model was created by Linda Nicholson & Eric Morris as a way to describe several features of effective ACT/CBS supervision. The SHAPE tool can be used as a way of prompting these choices and actions during supervision and to reflect on these features between supervision sessions

